The area is identified as ‘Potential Employment Land’, having potential to be rezoned from a residential zone to a business zone to support employment land uses within the area.

What does this mean for land owners: This means that prior to any development of the area studies will be undertaken to determine traffic management measure to be put in place to support development. It is anticipated that progress will occur between 5 and 15 years time.